Festival Weekend Celebrating the East Galway Style Of Traditional Irish Music, Song, Dance, Heritage & Culture

Accordion - Conor Connolly

Conor Connolly, from Clarinbridge, Co. Galway, is inspired by Joe Cooley and Joe Burke. A sought-after tutor, Conor was awarded TG4 Ceolteoir Óg na Bliana in 2019. He has taught workshops nationally and internationally, from Scoil Samhradh Willie Clancy to Rencontres Musicales de Tocane, sharing his passion for traditional Irish music.

Banjo - Angelina Carberry

Angelina Carberry, born in Manchester and rooted in County Longford's music, has recorded numerous albums and toured widely. Angelina has released notable solo and duet albums and won the prestigious TG4 Gradam Ceoil Musician of the Year in 2021. Angelina's style is incredibly distinctive with its own rhythmical characteristics.

Bodhrán - Junior Davey

Junior Davey, from Co. Sligo, is a highly respected player, having won the Senior All-Ireland title five times. Known for his rhythmic precision and deep understanding of the bodhrán and bones, he is a sought-after tutor who brings a wealth of experience and passion to his teaching.

Concertina - Clara Mannion

Clara Mannion, an All-Ireland concertina player from Dungarvan, Co. Waterford, has multiple Fleadh Cheoil titles, including U18 Concertina and U18 Duet and Trio. Clara has performed extensively in Europe and North America, and is dedicated to preserving traditional Irish music through teaching and workshops.

Fiddle - Dylan Carlos

Dylan Carlos, from Co. Roscommon, is a member of the group 'Carlos, Sweeney, and McCartin', and performs with 'Gatehouse'. An accomplished musician and past All-Ireland winner on the fiddle, Dylan regularly teaches and performs both nationally and internationally. His expertise and passion for the fiddle inspire many.

Sean Nós Dancing - Ryan Owens

Ryan Owens, from Strokestown, Co. Roscommon, is an Oireachtas and Fleadh champion. Ryan has taught dance classes nationally and internationally, performing with notable artists such as Nathan Carter, De Dannan, and We Banjo 3, to name but a few. He promotes the traditional art of Sean Nós dancing with enthusiasm and skill.

Set Dancing - Michael Cusack

Michael Cusack is a familiar face at Féile Cheoil Larry Reynolds where he has been calling the sets at our Céilís since the festival's inception. A seasoned dancer from a young age, Michael teaches set dancing to both junior and senior groups, many who have performed in Fleadh Cheoil. With a vast repertoire of sets, we are excited to have Michael lead a workshop where he will be teaching the East Galway Set among others.

The workshops are sponsored by:

Kevin Snr, Lisa, Michael John, Eric, James, Jennifer, Tena, Sean Jnr, Liam, Declan, Brigid, Tara, Kasey and Shannon Reynolds from Boston.
